This matter was opened to the New Jersey State Board of Social Work Examiners ("Board") upon receipt of information revealing the following:

1. Respondent, Eugene McCormick, Jr., was licensed to practice social work in the State of New Jersey on October 30, 1998. On May 29, 2001 respondent was granted a Clinical Social Work License No. 44SC04881200 and thereafter, permitted that license to lapse on August 31, 2004.

2. During February 2003, the Board received a copy of an Order of Revocation of respondent's Teacher of Music License.

Respondent's Teacher of Music License issued by the New Jersey Department of Education was revoked on October 9, 1997 based on respondent's convictions in May 1989 on charges of possession of cocaine and his February 1995 conviction on charges of possession of marijuana/hash. Respondent did not reveal the Order of Revocation of his Teacher of Music License on either of his applications for social work licensure.

3. Respondent's failure to submit his biennial renewal in New Jersey in 2004 resulting in a lapsed license status provides grounds to automatically suspend Respondent's license to practice social work in the State of New Jersey pursuant to N.J.S.A. 45:1-7.1(b).

ACCORDINGLY, IT IS on this 23 day of September 2008, ORDERED THAT:

1. Respondent's license to practice social work in the State of New Jersey shall be, and hereby is, suspended by operation of N.J.S.A. 45:1-7.1, without a hearing.

2. In the event that Respondent seeks reinstatement of his New Jersey license at any time in the future, then this Order shall require Respondent to appear before a Committee of the New Jersey State Board of Social Work Examiners to establish that he is fit to practice social work in New Jersey; provide information concerning his failure to disclose the revocation of his Teacher of Music License and his criminal convictions. Additionally, the Board reserves the right to take disciplinary action and place restrictions and/or limitations upon Respondent's license to practice social work in the State of New Jersey.
